Awakening the local church by reaching around 200 new leaders per year, training and helping them to make the church in Mozambique more Biblically aligned through:

Teaching local seminary workshops for leaders

Working side by side with local churches

Creating a regional support network and three training centers

Partnerships with Christian organizations

Providing high quality teaching resources

Online training with the Northeast Bible Seminary in Brazil

The Naque's served with World Renewal since 1998: first as church planters in Brazil, and now in Mozambique. Since March 2017, they have been coordinating a Church-Based Training program in Mozambique and are the directors of World Renewal in the South African Region.
